

6303. Adulteration of eggs. U. S. * * * v. Old Dutch Market, Inc. Plea of nolo contendere. Fine, $50. (F. & D. No. 450-c.)

On August 3, 1918, the United States attorney for the District of Columbia, acting upon a report by the health officer of said District, filed in the police court of the District aforesaid an information against the Old Dutch Market a corporation, doing business at Washington, D. C., alleging that said company, on June 10, 1918, at the District aforesaid, in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, did offer for sale and sell a quantity of eggs which were adulterated.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the information for the reason that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid animal or vegetable substance.

On August 3, 1918, the defendant company entered a plea of nolo contendere to the information, and the court imposed a fine of $50.

C. F. MARVIN, Acting Secretary of Agriculture.
